To Weymouth's peaceful bay

1

To Weymouth's peaceful bay
The sea comes twice a day
And sailing ships do ride
Upon the rising tide

Chorus

Call to me, sing to me
Seabirds and sailormen
Treasure will be plentiful
When my ship comes in

2

Across the open sea
The tall ships ride alee
And once a year return
To Weymouth come back home

Chorus

3

Courageous was the crew
All trusty men and true
Who in those days of yore
Defended England's shore

Chorus

4

Now raise a glass of ale
To all men who set sail
And give a welcome cheer
For all good seamen here

Chorus
